SUPPLEMENT

1. In the Majevica sector (Majevac Posavski) there are two very active resistance groups, one under the command of Engineer Moma Popovich and the other under the command of Dusan Popovich. These two groups specialize in attacks against the Brcko-Tuzla line and against important partisan officials. They also attack partisan groups and behave well toward the people who help them.
2. In Slavonia (Podgajacka Forest) near the village of Podgajica, nine kilometers from the village of Brcko, there is a strong and very active group which consists of 600 people. The group is supplied by the following villages: Drenovci, Vrbanja, Soljeni and Radinovci. The Podgajacka forest was the theater of a Communist breakthrough (Srem front) where thousands of people who had been captured by the partisans were liquidated.
3. In the village of Krasno near Otocac a group of fifty people are commanded by a peasant named Filip Bicanich from Dabar, near Otocac. This well-armed group belongs to the "Krizari" and is rather active, attacking partisan groups and communication lines.
4. In order to harm the popularity of the King and to provoke quarrels between Serbs and Croats and foster separatism, the Yugoslav Communist Party spread the news that radio London and radio American had broadcast the following declaration from King Peter: "I bring you the sad news that my mother has died. I am letting you know that I have abandoned the crown of my father for the crown of my grandfather (Source's Comment: Read "I will follow my grandfather's policies rather than my father's"). I hope soon to be able to return to my country Serbia among my Serbian people". With such reports the Communists hope to bring about separatism among the Krizari and the Guards in Croatia and Slavonia, who are fighting for the emblem of King Peter, as the Chetniks are doing in Serbia.
